Dear Mr. [redacted]:

We are working on your claim for:

- PTSD (post traumatic stress disorder)

What Do We Still Need from You?

We need additional evidence from you. Please put your VA file number on the first page of every document you send us.

Our letter dated 8/13/09 asked you to furnish details regarding the stressful event(s) that caused your post traumatic stress disorder. The response we received does not meet the minimum level of detail needed for VA to seek assistance from the U.S. Army and Joint Services Records Research Center (JSRRC). JSRRC assists VA in verifying veteran's claimed stressful incidents when VA cannot verify the stressful incident based on records from the service department or when VA cannot obtain the necessary records from the service department.

It is important that you provide us with more specific details concerning your stressful event(s). Failure to respond or failure to provide a complete response to this request may result in a denial of your claim. Specifically, we still need:

- A 60 day period the date the incident occurred (please note the red check on the copy of the VA form 0781 that you submitted)

Where Should You Send What We Need?

Please send what we need to this address:
